

INSPIRITED LIVING

by Lynne Bryan Phipps

Magazine Internship

Social Enterprise Greenhouse is helping to find qualified applicants for Inspired Living. Please see below for more information, or email talent@segreenhouse.org.

About: Inspired Living is an intentional community where people connect to encourage, uplift, and celebrate all that's being done in this world "for good." We share inspiration and stories of courage in the Street Light Magazine, and offer training and products that encourage, uplift, and support wellbeing. Beachwood Center for Wellbeing, the home of Inspired Living, helps people reduce stress to stay well and heal from stress-related illness using complementary care practices including equine therapy and learning, NET, expressive arts, meditation and more.

Description: The Magazine Intern will assist our magazine publisher with composition and scheduling of content and for-good news. This position provides the intern with the opportunity to work on a team in a startup environment with a focus on human wellbeing. Join our team and be part of a new perspective on health here in Rhode Island.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of Wordpress and other content creation platforms
- Interest and understanding of social media advertising

Hours per week: 5-20

Learning Objectives:

- Practical experience in an editorial environment
- Learn about alternative healthcare practice
- Composing and scheduling content

Compensation: Unpaid Internship or for academic credit. This opportunity has the potential of becoming a long-term position for the right candidate.
