

Ideation Lab Internship with Archimedes Project

Social Enterprise Greenhouse is helping to find qualified applicants for our social venture, Archimedes Project. Please see the below for more information, or email talent@segreenhouse.org.

Mission of Venture: Our goal is to solve the world's biggest problem: access to clean water.

About the Venture: The Archimedes Project is a dispersed nonprofit that works closely with university students to design and implement clean water projects around the world. We run Ideation Labs, which are basically weekend hackathons that take place on and off campuses to generate real clean water technologies to implement globally.

Description of Internship: This intern would be organizing the first ever cross-campus state-wide Ideation Lab, which includes: helping to design the event, promoting the event, helping to recruit the team for the event, logistics, and anything else that may come up..

Hours per week: 10

Learning Objectives:

- Principles of effective leadership
- Principles of social enterprise
- about clean water around the world
- sustainable solutions to bring clean water global
- how a dispersed grassroots incubator works
- successful nonprofit management principles
- what it takes to be a successful social entrepreneur
- principles of startup team building
- process of successful product development

Compensation: Unpaid
