

Communications Intern - Discover Warren - Spring 2018

About: Discover Warren is a not-for-profit community organization that aims to strengthen our small businesses through arts and cultural activities, collaborations with local nonprofits, and strategic grassroots marketing. We are about wise and sustainable growth that improves quality of life for residents as well as the business community.

Location: Warren, RI and remote; ability to travel locally a must

Hours: 5-10 hours weekly; flexible schedule

Semester: Spring 2018

Compensation: unpaid; school credit upon request

Start Date: Immediate

End Date: May 2018

Description: Discover Warren is seeking a Communications Intern to generate, manage, and plan creative content for all platforms of social media (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, etc). This position will also involve occasional event planning, merchant outreach, and collaborations with other local nonprofits.

Qualifications: Strong writing and communication skills, to be social media savvy, and have an interest in marketing for social change! Interest in creative/grassroots marketing skills.

How to Apply: Please send resume and cover letter to Talent@segreenhouse.org. Please add "Discover Warren Communications Internship Spring 2018" into the subject line.

